Why us?

Firstly, Lech am Arlberg is the most luxurious ski resort in Austria, as well as the most developed and the longest skiing area in the country. It has the longest ski season in Europe, starting in early December and ending after Catholic Easter - mid April.

Apart of that, it is the only heliski area in the country and most essentially - has guaranteed snow due to its unique geographical location. It has, perhaps the most convenient location - driving time is almost narrow with a bit of serpentine. You may reach Lech from multiple airports: Innsbruck (1,5h), Zurich (2h+), Munich (3h), Memmingen (1,5h), Milan (5h).

Lech is often called an «old money resort». It is so elegant, cozy, authentic - almost fully family owned when it comes to hotels and other businesses.

One can enjoy here more than 20 gastronomy locations including traditional Austrian or Alpine as well as fusion or modern cuisine.
